ENGAGEMENT

At WS2008 Carnival
Yesterday
Best Wishes!

The Scouts and Guides of the future WS's were in awe of the wonders of WS2008. The sun was shining and smiles were abounding, when our reporters picked up the following comments. "We are really enjoying ourselves. Everyone is really enthusiastic. The costumes are amazing!" (4TH Goring Brownies), "Brilliant! Thumbs up! Fandabbidosey!" (1st and 2nd Roffey Brownies), "We love the shops and the cafe. We are really looking forward to the activities. OH WOW... a man on stilts!" (3rd Feltham Brownies), "The rolling dragon looks easy; I bet I can do it... ok, it's really really really hard!" (1st Linfield Beavers) and a Beaver Colony said "This is loads of fun. My favourite game was splat a rat! I love the hula skirts"( Explorer Scouts in Training -Ed)

So, a great big thank you from all the visitors to WS for making carnival such a memorable day.

We at The Foggy View had a day to be sure. We wandered the site talking to visitors and getting reviews.

It was not long before we came across the Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress (Dave & Debbie) wandering the City Carnival Site in their fabulous recycled Chains of Office, with out a doubt the best use of an old Foggy View we have ever seen ( although by the end of today, we are sure there will be many replies in the office -Ed)

AROUND THE WORLD IN 'EATEY' DAYS

International evening was a triumph with exhibitions, presentations and the best bit 'FOOD' from around the world being enjoyed by all the WS2008 Campers. We asked the The Foggy View reporters to get the latest scoops (after they all came back with ice cream, we sent them out again – Ed)

During our travels on the International Evening, the Foggy View discovered the Shanghai Sub Camp team working in disgraceful conditions in what has been dubbed the 'Shanghai Sweatshop'. Slaving for at least 2 hours and being paid merely in prawn crackers, they were complaining of pains and not having a Trade Union. Suggestions were made that Sub Camp Leader Linda Barker should be sent to the Go Global tent to learn about Fairtrade. Shanghai also had a huge spread of food! The Lychees (despite looking like eyeballs) proved very popular. Spring Rolls were enjoyed by all as well as the Prawn Crackers and fried cabbage. It was lovely to see everyone trying something new and enjoying it all.

San Francisco Sub Camp created another WS first on the International Evening by creating exploding apple pies! The cream filled pies were delicious and the leaders had fun drawing portraits on the plates using the cream! (Just don't give up the day job guys-Reporter Steff)Scarlett and Phoebe from 7th Burgess Hill Guides enjoyed their pies and told The Foggy View, "San Francisco is definitely the best." Or so they are still telling us.

Sydney however had the personal touch when it came to cooking the food, slaving over the BBQ for hours on end to cook the prawns. They even provided a bowl for washing dirty hands which made the whole thing a very classy affair! Indeed, one Guide from Horsham Guides commented it was, "the classiest food I've eaten this week!" They may be from the 'Land Down Under', but they get the Thumbs Up from the Foggy View! (Our special thanks go to Alice from Sydney, who made an effort to circumnavigate the world to get hot Shrimps to

The Foggy View Office – Thanks, Sydney is getting very close to the Foggy View Best Sub Camp Award. We can't possibly finish this article without a very special 'FOGGY VIEW THANK YOU!'

To all the WS2008 Internationals for completing the evening with their own fabulous food stalls in the City and an evening of wonderful entertainment.

AS IF WE HAD'NT HAD ENOUGH!.....

STICKY MAPLE SYRUP.

After rolling out of bed with rather full tummies, the Foggy View reporters were back on the 'FOOD' Scene yesterday morning, invited by the Canadian Scouts on San Francisco who held a very successful pancake breakfast. The real Canadian maple syrup was delicious even if it did get our Foggy View reporters a little sticky! One Guide seemed to be enjoying herself, "I could eat a whole bucketload!". Another hungry bunch were the lucky Cubs that were called in to assist, once our reporters were full to the brim. THANK YOU CANADA!

The Foggy View Whether Report

Today There will be a significant change in the Weather

We are now spelling it
'Whether'

What's On Tonight
- In The City

Adrian is looking for some more dancers/singers/general performers to be in the Gang Show tonight. If you are interested, go to the main stage at 19:00hrs latest with your proposed piece.

Missing Bag

Would everyone please look in their tents for a bag that does not belong to anyone? It is blue and grey and contains a laptop. Please return to the Information Centre if found.

THANK YOU'S

Molly Marley a 9 month old guide with 3rd Goring would like to thank The Chichester Guides for returning her small Duck, who went wandering off to find muddy puddles to play in. When interviewed about the safe return of the lost creature Molly's Mum stated "Thank you so much, especially for going that little bit extra and giving him a nice shower and wash before returning him" (hope you didn't have to wait too long to get in the showers - Ed)

Congratulations & Well Done!

At the Carnival yesterday eight Guides were presented with their BP awards. Katie Pennicott, Lauren Phillips and Charlotte Dannat from 3rd Chichester Guides were presented with their certificates by their County Commissioner Angela Pickett from Girlguiding Sussex West. Vanessa Brown for 2nd Hassocks, Emma Farnes and Lara D'Cruze from 1st Harwood, Charlotte Pocock and Amy Edwards from 1st Hassocks had their certificates presented to them by their County Commissioner Janet Samuel from Girlguiding Sussex Central. Congratulations and well done to them all. We would also like to Congratulate, Robert Paynter from Greensands Explorers and Ashley Davis from 1st Hassocks Scouts (Southdown District) who had their Gold Scout Awards presented at WS2008 earlier in the day.

Well done lads!

TOP TIPS SECTION

We would like to thank Andy Rickman and Doug David of 7th Crawley & 1st Southgate Scouts for these essential tips...

Tips for Scouts and Guides from their Leaders

1. Meals do NOT include an extra course of sherbet sticks before and/or afterwards.
2. When we ask you to get out of bed, it does not mean go back to sleep for another two hours.
3. English is the language used by all Leaders from the UK, just because you are young doesn't mean you should not understand it.
4. Cooking a meal does not mean burning everything available.
5. Cleaning a tent includes more than moving one wet sock from one end of the tent to the other.
6. Having a "unique smell!" just means that you haven't washed for a few days. Do so immediately.
7. Washing up water is not highly poisonous and you can put your hands in the water to do the washing up.

We would also like to thank Shaun, Nathan Waldie Barney Woolard, Kayleigh Davis and Matthew Calver 1st Southgate & 7th Crawley Scouts for this response. (but doubt that you will be getting any tea this evening -Ed)

Top Tips for Leaders from Scouts and Guides

1. If you can do a better job of the cooking by all means do it yourself.
2. If you say "Don't do it", that's just challenging us.
3. Folk dancing is not interesting or fun.
4. Waking us up at 6am is just not necessary.
5. Three day old underwear is still clean.
6. How is it fair that we get the breaking tents and you get the new flash ones?
7. If we have to keep our tents tidy then so do you Shouting does not make us work faster.

However, Reporters Sam and Dan would like to point out that item 5, is incorrect. The true number of days is 8. The first day the right way round, the second day the wrong way round, the third and fourth days, turn them inside out and start from the beginning. When all 4 days were complete, just swap with your friend and start over, to get the full 8 days.

Wood Badge :

This morning a small presentation was made to Anthea and Ceinwen Bell of 1st Balcombe Scout Group. After much training they were presented with their Wood Badges. Ceinwen Bell was also presented with her five years of service certificate. Congratulations to both.

Site Services Update We would like to inform Site Service that generally motor vehicles with combustion engines require petrol or some other sort of fuel.

The Foggy View Office had a complaint from Sub camp Leader Lee in San Francisco. Apparently, she does not look her best at camp (no make up etc.) and she objects to the pictures being used in the Foggy View. So here is one of Lee ready for a night out away from WS.

Scottish Traveller In the USA

A surprise visitor turned up on San Francisco Sub Camp on Wednesday morning; the Loch Ness monster! Judging by the empty trainers next to her it appears she was enjoying snacking on Scouts before she was caught on camera. We do hope she is given a visitors pass soon!

Letters to the Foggy View Team

Dear Foggy View,

Following your photos of Dave asleep, we wish to defend his case! We have seen him working hard around the City after returning from a hard day at the office. We feel that if he needs a sleep to keep going then he can do! Anon

Dear Anon,

We have no problems with him falling asleep, as we would have big gaps in our newspaper if he didn't! By all means, Dave, keeping right on dozing, but watch out for that camera.

Dear Foggy View,

We would like thank Peter and Barbara Andrew (Christ Church Fellowship) for organising our great fund raising activities at the City Carnival. Our Rope making and name stall, rock pets and WS badges & beads went extremely well and we raised a substantial sum.— 1st Cowfold Scouts

Dear 1st Cowfold,

Thank you for your letter it is wonderful to know you made some money to assist The Chestnut Tree House and your stall was a joint effort. Well done to you and all the units that made such a tremendous effort yesterday.

THE FOGGY VIEW AIX—UPDATE (‘The Wanna Be’—Mother In-Law)E

Dear Foggy View,

I have seen all the replies you passed on to me (I know we normally publish, but there were so many of these we just had to pass them on —Ed) and can not seem to make up my mind. So please can I borrow your office to interview prospective Son in laws.—AIX

Dear AIX,

Please feel free to use our offices for your interviews; we will book you in for later today. However, to make sure that we do not clash with other activities on site we will make it around lunch time. To save the rush we will have an appointment system. So please can all future son in-law hopefuls please book an interview time between 11:00 and 13:00 today at our office. Interview fee two do-nuts payable to The Foggy View Team

STOP PRESS ....STOP PRESS...

PASSEPARTOUT—Update

Charmandean District had Passpartout for 72hrs and were dismayed to find that it had disappeared from their site early yesterday morning. They were upset that no-one had shouted "Passpartout we have found you" Just seconds later 1st Sompting Scouts popped into the Foggy View Offices to say they took Passpartout at 10.15am on Wednesday morning. When questioned they insisted "we did shout the words". But don't worry we will ask Passpartout when he gets back on Saturday.

Glastonbury Babe Update - Romantic Tea is a huge success!

Glastonbury Babe (a lovely young lady named Tina Lukins of (1st Turners Hill Guides) found her cider loving hunk at last, they eventually made their way to the romantic table that the Ritz had set up especially, through the hundreds of photographers (Well only 5 or 6 actually, but that's not bad for a small newspaper—Ed) R, (who we can now reveal is Richard Burse of 12th Chichester Scouts) was a perfect gentleman and they started their not so private date with great success. We have since then had information get back to us that there may be a second date already in the planning (Apparently supping cider will be involved). The Foggy View Team wish you both future happiness and would like an update at WS2012.

Dear Foggy View,

Why do your team keep falling to sleep on the job. Should they not be out looking for good stories.— Dave P

Dear Dave P,

We have no idea what you are talking about, unless you have proof, please retract this letter forthwith.

Dear Foggy View,
Please see below—Dave P

Dear Dave P

FOGGY VIEW NEEDS YOUR HELP!

We need your Photo's! Although our intrepid photographers have been clicking away on site, we still need lots more photo's from the camp sites and around WS2008 in general. So please bring your photos to us at the Foggy View Office; we have all the possible card and camera connections, so they can be read. You can even enter the Photo competition.

San Francisco Bridge Promise

San Francisco is certainly pulling the tourists in! Yesterday Gwen Williams from 9th Haywards Heath made her Young Leader promise on its soaring heights. Well Done Gwen!
